OCR Software Free

OCR Software Free

Convert Image Files into Text Documents for Free

OCR or Optical Character Recognition is software that converts image files that are scanned, written or printed into machine readable and editable text format. OCR software is very useful for a variety of applications and hence downloading the software can be very helpful. There are a number of sites from which OCR software can be downloaded. Some software needs to be purchased while on some sites one can find OCR Software Free.

How to Find OCR Software Free?

Finding OCR Software Free is quite easy. Just Google for keywords "OCR Software Free" and you are sure to find a number of sites that offer free downloads of OCR software. There are also a number of online OCR tools that help with converting image files to text files for free. Such software does not require downloading them. But by downloading OCR software free, one gets to use the software at anytime online or offline. You do not have to be connected to the internet to use the downloaded OCR software free. The OCR softwares are designed to perform most of the basic OCR conversion functionalities. They support all the common image formats like GIF, JPG, TIFF, BMP and PDF. Some of the OCR Software Free also support various languages. When downloading OCR software free, it is better to check what features it has to offer.

The Advantages of OCR Software Free

With OCR Software Free, one can get all the image files converted into text format, without having to pay for the software. OCR Software Free are designed with good graphical user interface and hence easier to be used. The only thing one must be cautious about is that the site from which they are downloading OCR Software Free is a trusted site.